RHINO'S REVENGE

Unleashing raw power and rebellious spirit, Rhino's Revenge is more than just a band—it's a sonic stampede led by John "Rhino" Edwards, legendary bassist of Status Quo. Dive into a world of gritty riffs, unapologetic rock 'n' roll, and the kind of energy that only comes from decades of musical mastery. Whether you're a die-hard fan or a curious newcomer, this is your backstage pass to the roar behind the name.

Anth Purdy

My show is a music journey through the decades explaining my influences and showcasing my personal interpretation of the styles of these guitar icons from the 1940's to the modern day.

The inspiration for my show came from Les Paul and his act from the 1940's/50's with my idea of adding a modern twist making it accessible to the wider audience of today.
